“Thy kingdom come, thy will be done...
...on earth as it is in heaven.”

Easter and the celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus will soon be upon us. This year I invite you to think about it in terms of the Lord's Prayer. I believe it is to give shape to how we believe and hope and live.

We tend to be fascinated with questions about immortality and about what happens when we die. But while we are asking our questions, we are surely dying. Death is more than just that moment when the body shuts down, the lungs stop taking in that life-giving air, the hearts stops pumping the blood that pulsates life. Death reigns, even within us, whenever and wherever there is resistance to God's rule.

What if the Resurrection of Jesus is God's own answer to our prayer, “thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.” The Bible is the story of the resistance of humanity, and even creation itself, to the reign and will of God. The Resurrection of Jesus is God's assertion of reign over all things, even death itself. That is why the Apostle Paul refers to it in this way: “the last enemy to be destroyed is death.”

Paul calls upon death in that famous chapter from 1 Corinthians (chapter 15) to assert its victory. But then he reminds death, and we along with the whole world, that the victory belongs to God. Paul goes on to tell us the mystery as to how we shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye. But what if the Apostle Paul is more concerned about the present moment in which we live. We are to experience the victory of the Resurrection of Jesus, and its transforming power, for this life here and now.

So listen to what he says. If the Resurrection of Jesus is simply the figment of imagination, then we might as well just eat and drink, for tomorrow (or someday) we die. And we can forget praying the Lord's Prayer. But for Paul, the Resurrection of Jesus is God's assertion of God's reign and will here on earth (as it is already in heaven). We pray for that victory to come upon us, perhaps even is this moment, in the twinkling of an eye.

So I leave you with the words that Paul ends this chapter on the Resurrection of Jesus.

“Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.”

1 Corinthians 15:58

Peace, Pastor Bob

Lutherlyn is Hiring Summer Staff

Lutherlyn is looking for faithful young adults who love to work with kids/youth, who feel called to make a positive impact on the lives of others, and want to have loads of FUN! Apply today for a life-changing summer! Employment information and an on-line application are available at www.lutherlyn.com/summeremployment or by contacting Deb at 724-865-2161.

Youth Fest at Lutherlyn April 26 – 28:

This is held at Lutherlyn starting on Friday evening, and it is for all Junior and Senior High Youth. Youth can register individually and be included with youth from other congregations. Or a church group (youth and adult leaders) can register together. Pastor would like to know if anyone is interested. And would ask the church to offer some financial support.

Synod Assembly and Youth Convo:

Every year our church structure meets in assembly with every congregation sending delegates to represent the congregation and make decisions for the wider church. There are several adults who have expressed interest in attending this year. The dates are June 13 – 15, 2019 to be held at California University of Pennsylvania. Youth are invited to be involved in two different ways. A youth may register as a Youth Delegate, and therefore sit in on all the activities of any delegate. But Youth are also invited to attend as part of Youth Convo, working sometimes as helpers in the assembly but also having a variety of experiences just for youth separate from the assembly agenda. If both cases, youth stay over in accommodations at the University.

Please let Pastor Bob know if you have interest in any of these opportunities. If our children and youth, and their families have other ideas or needs, please let Pastor know. And for the whole congregation, please keep our youth, children, and their families in daily prayer for their lives and their faith.

The Children Thank You!

To My Friends at Trinity,
Thank you so much for remembering me on my birthday,
you have no idea how much it meant to me.
God Bless You — Ruth Henry

A special thank you to D, J, and S for helping provide a lunch for Kittanning's Habitat for Humanity.
Not only was a delicious meal prepared for Habitat's workers but some sparkle was left in Trinity's kitchen as well. It was a job well done. E.D.S.

Thanks to Linda Durst for helping prepare Trinity for Lent. The wreaths and candles remind us of the 40 day Lenten journey we are taking together.

Dear Trinity Lutheran Church,
Thank you for supporting Armstrong Habitat for Humanity by providing lunch and delivering it on Monday for our Providence, RI and New Hampshire University Collegiate Challenge volunteers. The students were extremely thankful to learn their lunches and dinners were being supplied by local churches.

The students were busy this year working on a duplex on Grant St. and a house in Manorville. It was amazing to see the great attitudes and work ethic this group of young people displayed. They were eager to learn and to help with whatever we needed them to do. Our organization was fortunate to have this young group of humanitarians dedicate their spring break to Armstrong Habitat and we look forward to their coming back next year.

With your help we were able to support these students while continuing in our mission to eliminate substandard housing within our community. Thank you again for your contribution.

Sincerely, Michael McElhaney,
Executive Director Armstrong Habitat for Humanity

My Thanks to the members of Trinity Lutheran. It was grand to get "Get Well" Cards, Christmas cards & birthday. It took me almost 2 hours to read them all—I enjoyed them very much. Thanks to E. Shearer for her wonderful vegetable soup, cookies, & bread.

Also many thanks for B. Lauer to offer to get groceries. Millie Macurdy & Loretta Baker called many times. Sorry I didn't get everyone's name down! I have been blessed in attending a great church with a fine Pastor & staff and wonderful friends! Many thanks for your concerns, kindness, and prayers.
Blessing on all of You!! Jan Freehling
